

Matheus Lumber - Vancouver, WA

At Matheus Lumber we have a long tradition of providing quality products and outstanding customer service to the North American building industry. For over 75 years, Matheus has offered personalized service from a team of professional wood products technicians who know the business and understand the products available today. As one of the last true lumber wholesalers in the country, our team can answer all of your technical questions, from span specifications and grade rules to species options. The company operates branch offices and supply yards in Woodinville, WA, Vancouver, WA, Ellensburg, WA, Post Falls, ID, San Marcos, TX and Chandler, AZ.

Whether you require traditional building materials or engineered wood products for large-scale construction projects, Matheus' Vancouver, WA branch can recommend and supply innovative solutions to meet your needs, timelines, and budget. With a staff of four people, all specialists in the building industry, the Vancouver branch has supplied materials for a number of large projects in Southwest Washington, Northwest Oregon and across the country. Many of the apartment and condominium complexes, assisted living facilities and commercial buildings that Matheus' Vancouver branch has supplied are between 200,000 and 500,000 square feet. For specialized projects such as ski lodges and mountain resorts, Matheus can source hard to find specialized engineered products such as I-Beams, I-Joists, and over-sized Glue-Lam beams.
